OVERVIEW

China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC), as one of the founding institutions and the Beijing Office of the Asian Domain Name Dispute Resolution Centre (ADNDRC), will host the 2022 ADNDRC Annual Conference online with the theme “ADNDRC @ 20: DNDR in the Digital Economy” on 3 November 2022 at 13:30-16:50 (UTC+8, Beijing Time). The conference aims to promote the development of domain name dispute resolution, improve the online intellectual property protection mechanism and further support the development of China’s digital economy.

Professionals interested in domain name dispute resolution and online intellectual property protection are welcome to join.

PROGRAMME

Session I ADNDRC @ 20: Retrospect and Prospect

ADNDRC representative, domain name panelist, Registrar representative and DNDR service user will review the history and practices of the ADNDRC and the UDRP in the past 20 years, and to share their outlook for future developments of domain name dispute resolution.

Session II Ongoing Reforms of the DNDR System: Why and How

Representatives from the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN), China Internet Network Information Center (CNNIC) and China Academy of Information and Communications Technology (CAICT) will elaborate on the strategic considerations and possible reforms of domain name dispute resolution and internet governance more broadly.

Session III Online Intellectual Property Protection in the Digital Economy

Representatives from the judiciary and academia together with internet expert will discuss the current developments and innovations of the online intellectual property protection in the digital economy.
